

Park Donation Program

List of native trees for ecodistrict: South central

TREE TYPE	TREE	NEEDLE	DESCRIPTION
EVERGREEN TREES:
Eastern White Pine			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reaches 20 to 40 metres tall. • Trunk reaches 60 to 140 centimetres in diameter. • Thin needles (6 to 12 centimetres long). Grow in bunches of five.
White Spruce			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Usually grows to be 24 metres tall. • Needles about 2 centimetres long. Bluish green or green in colour, with a whitish powdery, waxy layer
SHADE TREES:
Red Maple			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reaches 25 metres high. • Trunk grows up to 1 metre in diameter. • Turn bright red in fall.
Oak			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reaches 20 to 30 metres high. • Thick trunk (up to 30 to 90 centimetres in diameter). • Dark green (10 to 20 centimetres long). Leaves have sharp, pointed lobes (usually 7 to 9) with bristly tips.
Linden			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reaches 35 metres tall. • Grow as large single- or multi-stemmed trunks. • Large, heart-shaped leaves. • Have jagged edges and a short point at the end.

* Please Note: Specific species of Trees may not always be available. We will contact you should your choice not be available.