Registration is now open for the 2020 Northeastern Fire Education Conference and Trade Show taking place March 27-29 at Deerhurst Resort in Huntsville!

The Northeastern Fire Education Conference and Trade Show, also known as NEFEC, offers northern Ontario fire services one of the most affordable educational opportunities for senior fire officers, company officers, firefighters and elected municipal officials. Hosted by the Nipissing/East Parry Sound Fire Services Mutual Aid Association, NEFEC 2020 takes place in beautiful Huntsville, Ontario at Deerhurst Resort and Conference Centre from March 27-29, 2020.

Over the course of three days, attendees hear from informative and engaging speakers who will be presenting on interesting and relevant topics for today's fire service. The conference agenda includes professional and leadership development, new technologies and science in the fire service, relevant and up-to-date topics concerning firefighter health and safety, public education, fire prevention, and team building activities. On Sunday, attendees get to choose which workshop they want to participate in, with each workshop covering various topics in the fire service allowing each attendee a unique and personalized professional development opportunity.

The conference focuses on pertinent information for all levels of fire personnel and municipal officials in both composite and volunteer fire departments, and municipalities.

All members of the fire service and municipal officials are welcome to participate in this invaluable learning and networking experience.

In addition to the excellent conference content, NEFEC also boasts a world class trade show, which has all major fire service suppliers in attendance. The trade show continues to be a significant contributor to the overall success of the NEFEC. Participants are given multiple opportunities to visit with exhibitors ensuring they're up to date on the latest tools, technologies, and equipment available in the fire service. It is a perfect opportunity to negotiate the best prices on equipment and services for your department.

In the evenings, NEFEC networking events and annual banquet offer attendees the ideal opportunity to interact and socialize with colleagues, exhibitors, and municipal officials, while enjoying refreshments and entertainment.

What's New for 2020?

- Saturday networking breakfast on the trade show floor;
- Opportunity to purchase NEFEC swag when you register;
- Live band at the banquet; and
- New and exciting guest speakers & workshops.

Agenda Highlights

Keynote: Camp Fire - The Fire That Changed California & Working with & Educating Elected Officials, Presented by Mike Mohler, Deputy Director, Communications, California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

Sponsored by VFIS

The deadliest and most destructive wildfire in California's history required a massive response that involved the mobilization of various agencies, personnel, equipment and resources. CAL FIRE Deputy Director of Communications Mike Mohler will break down the timeline of the initial response to the November 2018 Camp Fire.

Keynote: Disasters - Leadership Before, During, and After, Presented by Jamie Coutts

During Jamie's fire service career, he was lucky (or unlucky) enough to participate in 3 of Canada's top 6 disasters. He survived the Slave Lake Wildfires of 2011, the Southern Alberta Floods of 2013, and the Fort McMurray Fire of 2016. In between, and since, Jamie has had the opportunity to help build a very capable regional fire service with some of the greatest people he has ever met.

Keynote: Unbroken, Presented by Carl Dixon, Formerly of the Guess Who & April Wine

As a result of that horrific incident, Carl lost his gig with The Guess Who. After eight years in recuperation, with continuing ongoing treatment, Carl needed extensive titanium bone replacements, a cleverly crafted glass eye, and ongoing post traumatic stress syndrome counselling. Carl will discuss his remarkable come back from his car crash and hear how he rebuilt his personal life and business to enter the happiest and busiest phase of his life.
